

Nic's Consensus Tournament - Pack #Preamble

Hey there! Thank you so much for having a look at this. Just a few things before we get rolling:

1. Beyond using their lovely format, this has nothing to do with the official Consensus organization! I'm assuming I don't have to make any introduction here, the only reason you'd be reading this is if you ran out through all publicly available Consensus packs and are hankering for some new material. If you for some reason aren't, they can be found at consensustrivia.com (as well as varying places on social media), and wise would be the one who checks them out.
2. I cannot promise this is error free! In fact, I am almost certain that many have snuck through. If you find one, don't be shy! If you find a fact you feel is wrong, you can go ahead and email me at feedback@nicolausderikx.com. I only ask that you please include the word "Consensus" in your subject line. Otherwise, my spam filter may very well send it to purgatory.
  - a. Plagiarism: If you notice anything that seems too close to something else, please do also let me know! I run basically every practice for Carleton's club, which means I read hundreds and hundreds of questions- at a certain point, some might leak through when you try to write hundreds yourself. You obviously can't copyright a fact, but if you find wording that seems uncomfortably close to something else, just let me know and I'll take it out.
3. I cannot promise these are good! I wrote them for my own enjoyment, and while beta-reading has weeded out some weaker questions, they can't all be winners. I wrote this pack by pack, with no real distribution in mind.
4. Finally, a special, from the bottom of my heart thank you to my friends and the Carleton Quiz and Trivia Association! You've all been invaluable in listening to my ramblings and correcting errors where you found them- this would've been orders of magnitude worse without you.

Love,

Nic/Victoria
